Joyful Food Markets and Community Markets

Joyful Food Markets support at 53 elementary schools in Wards 7 & 8, east of the Anacostia River, to reduce hunger and increase access to and consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables. Presented in partnership with the Capital Area Food Bank and DC Health, the markets are held once a month, immediately following school dismissal.

Food Tidy-Up

Martha’s Table needs volunteers to assist with cleaning up from all our Food Program activities that take place during the day. Come help our staff keep up with cleanup and other tasks throughout the day.

In-Store Market

The Commons
2375 Elvans Rd SE
11:00am - 4:00pm

Martha’s Table believes that access to fresh, healthy food is essential for supporting strong children, families, and community. Our market is open to anyone Monday-Friday. As a market volunteer, you assist clients as they shop for their groceries, close up the market at the end of the day and get to directly interact with our community members!

Our mobile food service, McKenna’s Wagon, goes out 365 days a year to distribute meals in downtown D.C. Our volunteers serve food to our guests and unload the van upon return to Martha’s Table. Keep in mind that there is only room for 4 volunteers + 1 pre-approved driver.

Saturday Seniors Drivers and Helpers

Every Saturday, Martha’s Table delivers meals door-to-door to the senior residents of Paul Laurence Dunbar Apartments. This program is imperative, as many of the seniors rely on us to receive meals on the weekends.

Baking Enthusiast

Sign-up to bake muffins for our nightly mobile food truck, McKenna’s Wagon. No prior baking experience necessary - just a love for homemade snacks! Space is limited to 4 volunteers. All volunteers must be at least 14 years old.

Food Prep

Martha’s Table relies on volunteers every day to peel, chop, slice, and dice produce for our nightly, hot meal distribution to two downtown D.C. locations.
