Strong and Healthy...TOGETHER

Many families are faced with food insecurity during the summer when schools are closed.
Your support helps fight food insecurity. With your help, we host pop-up markets throughout D.C. all summer long. All neighbors are welcome to shop for the food they need at no cost.

Ms. Brown is one of our neighbors visiting us this summer. She loves to bring her kids, too. They are greeted by baskets overflowing with fresh fruits and vegetables...and a whole lot of joy!

“I want my kids to learn about different produce and fruits,” Ms. Brown shared. “The produce I am getting from Martha’s Table helps me because I can keep more fresh fruit in the house for my kids to snack on!”

Ms. Brown loves seeing her kids discover new fresh produce. This summer, they tried fresh zucchini and eggplants for the first time!
Plus, we make it easy by providing recipes highlighting fruits and vegetables families get from our markets. They are even kid-approved in Ms. Brown’s house!

“We tried some of the recipes and we actually like them! I’m so glad that we are able to try new produce we would never have tried before,” she celebrated. “And, I don’t have to buy extra stuff to go with the recipes, it’s just in the bag...which is extremely helpful!”

This fall, we are gearing up to host 50 markets each month in schools throughout D.C. Ms. Johnson is a volunteer who makes our market possible at Cedar Tree Elementary School. She knows just how important our recipes are...

Your support keeps our markets joyful all year-round. Thank you!

Building Community…TOGETHER

With your help, we’re deepening our impact even further with the launch of our new Community Impact Fund!

Sadly, many grassroots organizations who have served our neighbors for years are overlooked by funders. When our community organizations are strong, our work at Martha’s Table is strong too! We are proud to work TOGETHER.

When you step up to support Martha’s Table, you’re also standing alongside neighborhood leaders who share the lived experiences of the communities they serve.

You are fueling so many inspiring initiatives: from investing in the immediate needs of children and families experiencing homelessness, to offering higher education scholarships to high school students in D.C. Wards 7 and 8.

You should be proud of the deep impact your support makes in our community.

One inspirational grantee is the Anacostia AMP Outreach & Empowerment Center. You are helping support their mission to provide community HOPE through healing, opportunity, provision, and empowerment.

“This will be life changing for the people we serve.” Aummett Paige, President of Anacostia AMP reflected. “Anacostia AMP is my ministry, and this grant provides a huge relief to the organization and allows us to expand our reach in the community.”

“We are so proud of the work each community grantee is doing to uplift our Martha’s Table community. We can’t wait to see the impact of their work.”

Sharing the Joys of Parenthood…TOGETHER

The parenting journey is best traveled with a strong and steady support system.

Your generosity is connecting mothers in our community. Our parent support programs provide concrete resources like cash assistance…but they also connect mothers and build relationships.

“This program has become my family! I’m sincerely appreciative.” Ms. Patterson, a strong Martha’s Table mom, shared with a smile.

Ms. Patterson is on a new career path, continuing her education because of your support.

“On June 30th, I was accepted with a full scholarship,” Ms. Patterson celebrated. “I can’t wait to see what doors will open for me and my family in the near future!”

New doors have also opened for Ms. Ali. She described Martha’s Table’s parenting programs as nothing short of “enlightening!”

“I made some guacamole and stir-fry from one of the recipes,” Ms. Johnson remembered. “I like that they’re kid friendly, they’re quick, and most of the time, they’re easy!”

This summer, Ms. Johnson especially enjoyed market activities like playing games with volunteers dressed in funny fruit costumes and dancing to upbeat music with neighbors stopping by to pick up a bag.

Even after a long day working in her classroom, she looks forward to the excitement of a Martha’s Table market.

“I used to work on the third floor, and we’d be like, ‘the market is here, we can smell the food!”’ she shared cheerfully. “We couldn’t wait to get downstairs to try the food. I loved how they’d allow the kids to try to chop and help with ingredients.”

With over 50 monthly markets during the school year, we truly rely on the caring support of neighbors to make sure every child goes home with a bag full of fresh, healthy food.

You make a wonderful difference in the lives of D.C. families and caregivers like Ms. Brown and Ms. Johnson—thank you!
